Education

2015–today	Ph.D. University of Edinburgh Thesis Title: Inference and Generalization in Humans and Machines Supervisors: Prof. Dr. Christopher Lucas, Prof. Dr. Subramanian Ramamoorthy
2012–2015	MSc. Cognitive Science, University of Osnabrück Thesis Title: Causal Reasoning and the Markov Assumption in a Physical Microworld Thesis Grade: 1.0 (A), Overall Grade: 1.0 (Distinction) Supervisors: Prof. Dr. Frank Jäkel, Prof. Dr. David Lagnado
2010–2011	New Bulgarian University Semester abroad
2008–2013	BSc. Cognitive Science, University of Osnabrück Thesis Title: Categorization in Chess Thesis Grade: 1.0 (A), Overall Grade: 1.2 (Distinction) Supervisor: Prof. Dr. Frank Jäkel

Academic & Research Experience

2018-2019	TA, Tutor &amp; Marker for Computational Cognitive Science, University of Edinburgh, UK Developing materials for the tutorials in R. Tutoring and marking an undergraduate-level class in computational modeling.
2016-2018	TA, Tutor, Demonstrator &amp; Marker for Introduction to Cognitive Science, University of Edinburgh, UK Developing materials for the exercises, labs and assignments in Python. Tutoring and demonstrating an introductory course in Cognitive Science.
2017	Internship at the Alan Turing Institute, London, UK During the three month internship I developed and implemented a prototype app to allow citizen engagement through interactive explanations.
2014	Research Assistant in the Cognitive Modeling Group, University of Osnabrück, Germany Developing, programming, running and analyzing human categorization experiments.
2014	Research Internship at the Causal Cognition Lab, University College London, UK Three month visit during which I developed experimental designs and researched causal cognition.
2013-2014	Tutor for Multivariate Statistics, University of Osnabrück, Germany Tutoring of psychology master students in multivariate statistics. Supervision of theoretical and SPSS exercises.

Presentations

2018	Talk: Darmstadt, Germany Title: Data availability and function extrapolation 14th biannual conference of the German Society for Cognitive Science Best Presentation Award
2017	Poster Presentation: London, UK Title: Identifying Causal Direction in the Two-Variable Case 39th Annual Cognitive Science Conference
2017	Talk: Osnabrück, Germany Title: Human-like Function Learning and Transfer Colloquium of the Institute of Cognitive Science
2016	Poster Presentation: Windsor, UK Title: Human-like Function Learning and Transfer Workshop: Human-Like Computing Machine Intelligence Workshop
2015	Talk: Kunsthaus Muerz, Austria Title: Kausales Denken - Bayesianische Modelle im Dialog mit der Wiener'schen Denkpsychologie Symposium: Oswald Wiener: Selbstbeobachtung - Denkpsychologie
2015	Poster Presentation: Möhnesee-Günne, Germany Title: Categorization in Chess Interdisciplinary College, Möhnesee-Günne
